1 Chronicles 28-29 – Thursday, October 13th, 2016

- 1 Chronicles 28 -- 1 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all the mighty men of valor. 2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it. 3 But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood.' 4 However the LORD God of Israel chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen Judah to be the ruler. And of the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel. 5 And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. 6 Now He said to me, 'It is your son Solomon who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father. 7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.' 8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.
- The chapter begins with David passing the baton to his son Solomon and it's in a public assembly before all of Israel's leaders.
- In addition to David sort of deputizing Solomon, he's also exhorting the leaders of Israel concerning the building of the Temple.
- This because, David knows he only has so much time before he dies to set in order all of the affairs of the kingdom for his son.
- I find it interesting that the emphasis of David's exhortation is that of being careful to seek out all the commandments of God.
- Moreover, he says if they're steadfast to observe God's commandments, they'll possess the land and leave it as an inheritance.
- The reason I find this interesting is that it speaks to our possessing of the promises of God, by way of our obedience to God.
- 9 "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. 10 Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."
- What David is saying to his son is that the secret to his greatness was his relationship with the Lord, and his service to the Lord.
- Notice in verse nine where David tells Solomon to both know God and to serve God with a loyal heart and with a willing mind.
- I would suggest that our willingly serving of the Lord and our loyalty to the Lord will be proportionate to our knowing of the Lord.
- G. Campbell Morgan of this wrote, "To know God is to serve Him. All failure in service is the result of loss of vision of God, misapprehension of Him, due to some distance from Him."
- 11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat; 12 and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things; 13 also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD.
- Here we see the importance of having good plans, especially when it comes to a building for God and for the people of God.
- One of the many things that God was and is still teaching me about this building project is the importance of it glorifying Him.
- Because, as one said, "the Spirit of God speaks through the Word of God to the people of God," He is in our midst in this place.

Spurgeon - "Moreover, the temple was for God's own dwelling. Should not the Most High have a house after his own mind? If he was to be the Tenant, should it not be built to suit him? And who knows what God requires in a habitation but God himself?"

14 He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service; 15 the weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand. 16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver; 17 also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl; 18 and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD. 19 "All this," said David, "the LORD made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans." 20 And David said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God—my God—will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. 21 Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command."

- The chapter ends with David exhorting Solomon to "Be strong and of good courage, and do it; and to not fear nor be dismayed."
- This is another lesson God is teaching me through this building project and it's that of just doing it, courageously and fearlessly.
- When you know that God is in it and with you throughout it, by faith you must just do it in both the power and might of the Lord.

I love how Charles Spurgeon said it, "Do not talk about it; do not sit down, and dream over the plans, and think how admirable they are, and then roll them up; but, 'Be strong and of good courage, and do it.'"

- Before we move on to chapter twenty-nine and complete the book of 1st Chronicles, there's something I would like to point out.
- There's a very important reason for the specificity with which David instructs Solomon concerning all of the temple furnishings.
- Namely, that of the typology in the Tabernacle and subsequently the Temple, such that it points to the person of Jesus Christ.
- I'm hoping that you'll kindly indulge me for just a bit as I share with you what I believe is the most fascinating picture of Christ.
- In order to do that, I need to first explain that the Tabernacle and the Temple and everything associated with them we a copy.
- More specifically, the pattern of the Tabernacle and the Temple was actually a copy and a shadow of that which is in heaven.

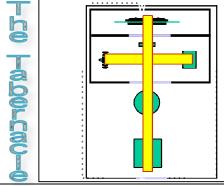

Hebrews 8:5-6 5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain." 6 But the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which he is mediator is superior to the old one, and it is founded on better promises.

- In Revelation, John describes this heavenly scene and shows how fits together so beautifully, perfectly and even prophetically.

Revelation 4:6-7 - 6 Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back. 7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle.

- Just as these 4 creatures are around the throne at the center so too are these 4 of three tribes centered around the tabernacle.

1 Chronicles 29 -- 1 Furthermore King David said to all the assembly: "My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the temple is not for man but for the LORD God. 2 Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance. 3 Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver: 4 three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses; 5 the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?"

- If you're anything like me and I suspect that you are, you've really come to appreciate the heart of David after God's own heart.
- Clearly, David knew everything was for God and not man, and it's evidenced by him repeatedly saying, the house of my God.
- It's also evidenced by what he says in verse three about setting his affection on and giving over and above as unto the Lord.

6 Then the leaders of the fathers' houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king's work, offered willingly. 7 They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

- Here we see that the leaders of Israel followed David's example and giving to the work of God willingly and even generously.
- To me, this speaks to the principle in ministry of "servant leadership," in the sense that people will serve and give by example.
- When you have a leader who models serving and giving, it becomes an example to those who are serving under that leader.

This is what we're seeing with the Apostle Paul on Sunday mornings. In 1 Corinthians 11:1 he says, "Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ."

8 And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. 9 Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly. 10 Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said: "Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever. 11 Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, The power and the glory, The victory and the majesty; For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours; Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, And You are exalted as head over all. 12 Both riches and honor come from You, And You reign over all. In Your hand is power and might; In Your hand it is to make great And to give strength to all. 13 "Now therefore, our God, We thank You And praise Your glorious name. 14 But who am I, and who are my people, That we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from You, And of Your own we have given You. 15 For we are aliens and pilgrims before You, As were all our fathers; Our days on earth are as a shadow, And without hope. 16 "O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name is from Your hand, and is all Your own. 17 I know also, my God, that You test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You. 18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You. 19 And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the temple for which I have made provision." 20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king. 21 And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. 22 So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

- To me, this is amongst the most grand and glorious prayers and praise of thanksgiving ever recorded in the pages of Holy Writ.
- The reason is because of that which David expresses concerning the privilege of giving to the Lord on the part of God's people.
  David is rejoicing because he knows that the willingness of God's people to give was an indicator of the state that Israel was in.
- G. Campbell Morgan of this wrote, "Praise then merged into prayer that the state of mind in which they had given might be maintained; and for Solomon, that he might be kept with a perfect heart to complete the work of Temple building. It was a fitting and glorious ending to a great reign."

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. 24 All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon. 25 So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. 26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. 27 And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem. 28 So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place. 29 Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, 30 with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

- One of the reasons we love David so much is that he was the recipient of God's grace and mercy in a most profound manner.
- I love verse 28 where we're told that David died in a good old age, full of days, and riches and honor, after reigning 40-years.
- It's interesting to note that there's no mention by the Chronicler of his unthinkable sin in the matter of Bathsheba and Uriah.
- The question becomes one of why, why is David's sin, which would have been punishable by death, conspicuously absent?
- The answer is because as the Prophet Nathan had told David, God had put away his sin, because David had repented of it.
- This simple truth should be a source of great encouragement to us because it demonstrates God's goodness and forgiveness.

Adam Clarke said it best this way, "By birth, a peasant; by merit, a prince; in youth, a hero; in manhood, a monarch; and in age, a saint. The matter of Uriah and Bath-sheba is his great but only blot! There he sinned deeply; and no man ever suffered more in his body, soul, and domestic affairs, than he did in consequence. His penitence was as deep and as extraordinary as his crime; and nothing could surpass both but that eternal mercy that took away the guilt, assuaged the sorrow, and restored this most humbled transgressor to character, holiness, and happiness. Let the God of David be exalted forever!"
